

May 26, 2010

This week is senior week

Today is jersey day (wear an athletic jersey)

Tomorrow is Life after high school (college clothes)

Starting Friday during exams there will be no backpacks allowed on campus.

Anyone interested in playing boys or girls tennis for the 2010-2011 school year. There will be an informational meeting tomorrow, May 27 at 1:30pm. Boys will meet in room 408 and girls will meet in room 725. If you are unable to attend the meeting, boys see Coach Richards in P.E. and girls see Coach Iglitz in room 725.

Attention all athletes interested in participating on the cross country team- There will be a quick informational cross country meeting today, May 26th at 1:20pm in room 404. If you need to purchase an athletic packet, you can obtain one at the meeting for $20.

Attention all current 9th graders: this message is just for you.

If you want to take drivers education next year you need to see your councilor to arrange it in your schedule. Drivers Ed will be an early bird class that will last one quarter. Sign up now so you don't have to wait or miss out altogether next year.

Falcon Basketball will hold its annual summer basketball camp in the Foothill gym for boys and girls entering 3rd grade through 9th grade, June 7 - 10 from 5 pm to 8 pm. The $100 registration will include a personal evaluation, camp t-shirt, instruction and competition. Contact Coach Ringler in rm. 735, Coach Soares in boys PE, or any boys coach for a registration form or print one at: betruetotheblue.com. This is a great way to start the summer with a break from your younger brothers and sisters!

. The district's athletic department is attempting to expand sports for girls. Female students interested in participating in lacrosse or gymnastics please stop by the athletic office any time to sign an interest sheet.

Did you know that the deadline for getting your dual credit classes scheduled for next year has extended until this Friday, May 28th.

That means if you want to take a dual credit class next year, you must get your payment in by Friday, May 28th or you will be placed in a regular honors class for that subject instead of the dual credit class.

Remember dual credit is where you get high school and college credit.

So don't forget to get your payment in to the banker by Friday.
